SYLVIA SAAVEDRA-EDELMANN is an accomplished voice teacher and advocate of the performing arts. With a teaching career that commenced at 27,. She co-founded the OTTOEDELMANNSOCIETY in 2006, fostering young vocal talents.

Her dedication led to the OTTOEDELMANNSOCIETY PUBLIC AWARD and the renowned INTERNATIONAL OTTO EDELMANN SINGING COMPETITION in Vienna, now spanning 7 successful editions.

As a global career consultant, Sylvia's "Audition Training" impacted aspirants worldwide, bridging continents from ISA-MDW-Vienna to Seoul, Riga, and Las Palmas de Gran Canaria. Amid the Covid Pandemic, she embraced online platforms, guiding students in universities and conservatories. She was the organizer of the first live concert during the worldwide pandemic in Vienna.

Sylvia's passion culminated in founding +OPERA in 2015, delivering 13 productions across Vienna and Gran Canaria, Spain

Her experience as a producer included also ISA-MÖRBISCH Operetta Workshop coordination and aiding Seefestspiele Mörbisch's "The Merry Widow" in Daegu, Korea.

Sylvia's vision extended to co-founding MEA Music Education Abroad, uniting Asia and Austria's musical spheres.

An advocate of the power of social media for music and opera, Sylvia is the driving force behind +OPERA and holds the title of Social Media Manager endorsed by Austrian Standards. An experienced artist and producer, she is proficient in video editing, managing web Sites, such as Wix, Jimdo, Canva, Wordpress and the main social media channels.

Her multilingual fluency—Spanish (native), Italian, German (C1-1), English, French, Hebrew—bolsters cross-cultural communication, complemented by her ongoing study of Mandarin (B1-1).

Based in Vienna, Sylvia embraces change and embarks on fresh journeys. Her innovative social media strategies, combined with her dedication to the arts, make her an asset for music agencies, theaters, and orchestras, aligning with her unwavering quest to elevate the arts.
